

Hello! I'm so glad that you want to join along in this 90 day Bible reading journey!

You'll find the reading checklist attached to this letter, but I already know what you're probably thinking right now.... "Read the entire Bible in 90 days? I don't have time." Maybe you've tried to read it even in a year before and got sidetracked and never finished it? I believe that for many of you reading this, though, now is the perfect time to start!

We call ourselves followers of Christ. But how can we follow Him if we do not know all there is to know about Him? We have an incredible gift that we've been given. Through the Word of God, the ability to see a glimpse into His story, from when He was there at creation to the powerful revelation of a Savior that can impact our eternity.

2 Timothy 3:16-17 tells us, "All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip His people to do every good work." The Bible is truth, and it's powerful! We live in a culture where truth appears to be relative and adjusts to the situation and the season. But Scripture clearly tell us that isn't the case. It is easy to be tossed by the wind when we don't have a strong foundation based on truth. So how can we learn what is true? By spending time with God in His Word.

I know... you're still thinking it's an insurmountable task, and while you may think reading the Bible is a good idea, you just don't think you have the time. For most, this will actually only take about an hour or less a day to read. That could be as simple as you cutting out a bit of binge watching your favorite show. And much more meaningful to your life, I might add. But I'm also going to give you a few tips to help you succeed in completing this challenge:

- Set a time to read - This will be impacted by your schedule. Maybe this means getting up a bit earlier each morning, maybe it means setting aside a part of your lunchtime or a chunk of time in the evening? Make a plan that works for your schedule and you'll be more likely to accomplish it.
- Make it manageable - If reading a large portion at a time is overwhelming for you or doesn't fit into your day, then consider breaking it up into smaller pieces. Maybe you read 30 minutes in the morning and 30 in the evening. Or maybe you have smaller pieces throughout the day that you read. And if that simply does not work for you, then possibly listening to an audio version of the Bible on your commute to work or throughout your day may be an option for you.
- Make it a priority - Here's the bottom line, if it's important to you, then you'll make it happen. If you truly want to grow closer to the Lord by spending time in His Word, then you have to make it a priority and just do it.
- Find someone to read with you - For some of you, this may be the encouragement you need. Find a friend or family member that you know would be blessed by this challenge and invite them to join in with you. While it's something that will change your life personally, sometimes having someone walking along a journey with you can be an encouragement and motivation to keep going.

My prayer for you as you read these next 90 days, with a couple grace days built in, is that you will not simply do this as something to check off a list, but that you will seek to know your God and your Creator more deeply through this. That you will begin to build a stronger foundation of what is true by soaking up the truth of the Word of God.

Honored to walk this journey with you,
Honey Woods
