FATHER'S DESK

“Needy” Week Three: The Need for Work and Rest

Dear brothers and sisters,

Spirituality 101 is this: there is a God, and it is not us. We are the created, and therefore we are needy. We’ve talked about meeting our legitimate needs in legitimate ways. Like an unhealthy person who doesn’t get medical help, if we don’t take care of our needs, we will grow unhealthy, whether it’s in our physical, emotional, or spiritual lives. Last week we talked about the deepest need of our heart and soul – our need for God – and meeting that need through prayer.

Today we will look at the rhythm of our lives, which involves work and rest. This rhythm is established by God in creation; according to Genesis chapter 1, God created the world in six days, and rested on the seventh day. Psalm 127 says this: Unless the LORD build the house, they labor in vain who build. Unless the LORD guard the city, in vain does the guard keep watch (v. 1). So any of our plans for “building,” whether it’s building a new house, our job or career, or any work or efforts that we do in life, is good for nothing if we do not bring God and invite God into our work. The next verse says: It is vain for you to rise early and put off your rest at night, to eat bread earned by hard toil – all this God gives to his beloved in sleep (v. 2). This verse is incredibly important for our modern world, even pre-COVID. All the work that we do is in vain, if we’re anxious, and exhausted, and “in toil” about our work – and God wants to pour rest into our souls! After doing the Lord’s work day by day, we need to rest. This involves a few different things – first, having “play” inserted into our lives. Think of your pets who have no care in the world, or enjoying time with your young children or grandchildren. Playful activities remind us that we are all children of God, no matter what age we are and what our responsibilities are! Second, we need to systematize rest – to work hard to plan rest into our daily, weekly, and annual schedules. In my own schedule, I’ve found it essential that I have a healthy daily time for recreation (reading a book, exercise, etc.), a weekly day off from church activities and church people, and annual time for a retreat and for a vacation. Plan these things in your life! It’s essential more than ever in this difficult time. All of us should build in daily “divergence” for activities that refresh and restore our souls; weekly time to “withdraw” in some way; and annual time to “abandon” our ordinary routine. No matter how simple these activities are, and how much they may be upended and altered because of COVID, we need to do them in order to live healthily and best love God and others. Schedule them this week!

Questions for Small Groups:

1. Read aloud Psalm 127:1. What would it look like to bring God into your work so you don’t work in vain?
2. What are one or two things that refresh and restore your soul?
3. What do you usually do on your days off? How do you withdraw weekly?
4. Read aloud Psalm 127:2. Would you say you are able to enjoy the fruit of your work or do you live anxiously?
5. What can you do on a regular basis to introduce more playfulness into your life? Do you have a plan to abandon annually? If so, what is it?

With blessings,
Fr. Reichlen

Guidelines for Events At St John's

There is no need for a reservation to attend public Masses. However, please be aware that if our church is filled to capacity, you may have to wait in your car and follow the Mass Live Stream, until the time for Communion in the Parking Lot. Note that all the procedures, as mandated by the Bishop, still apply – (1) stay home if you or members of your household are vulnerable or sick; (2) maintain social distancing; (3) wear a mask properly; and (4) exit immediately after Holy Communion so that the church can be sanitized.

Communion Distribution will be in the Parking Lot on Saturdays at 5:00 pm, and Sundays at 12:15 pm. Please follow the directions of the parking lot attendants. You will be expected to exit your car and walk to a designated space in the parking lot in order to receive Communion. Procedures may be altered because of inclement weather.
