FATHER'S DESK

“Defining Moments” Week 3: Accepting God’s Invitation

Dear brothers and sisters,

We’ve been looking in this series at how God orchestrates certain moments that are brimming with meaning in the life of people – moments that draw them closer to him; moments that challenge or stretch people; moments that give people a fresh start; or moments that call us to a greater cause. These moments help us to better understand ourselves and our relationship to God. For any parent, for example, one defining moment most likely is the birth of your first child, and the change between “before kids” and “after kids.” We can use defining moments to bring positive change into our lives. Perhaps you have had a certain spiritual moment, like a retreat or a Bible study, that changed the course of your spiritual life and the decisions that you make. Even if you were raised Christian or Catholic, there might be – and truly, there should be – a defining moment where your faith became personal. In the Gospel, Jesus always meets people right where they are, and he invites them into a bigger story. One passage that illustrates this is Jesus’ encounter with the woman caught in the act of adultery (John 8:1-11). A few details here: according to the religious leaders, the scribes and Pharisees, the Law required that a woman caught in adultery be stoned to death. Imagine in this scene the woman, probably afraid and shamed, standing before a cohort of religious leaders, all men. She must have also been terrified! Killing someone by stoning could take longer than you might think – perhaps even hours. These religious leaders bring the woman before Jesus, and they try to use her to test Jesus; the Scripture tells us: They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, “All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!” Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust. When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, “Where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?” “No, Lord,” she said. And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more” (John 8:6-11). Most certainly, this is a defining moment for this woman! The Bible doesn’t tell us what happened to her afterwards; but we are invited to place ourselves here into this story. Jesus has inserted himself into our sinful lives. Do we accept God’s invitation to enter into the bigger story? If not, what in our lives keeps us resistant? Questions for Small Groups:

1. Name a few moments in your life where you were different after the moment than before? What do you think might have happened to the woman caught in adultery?
2. How might her life have changed after the moment that Jesus acquitted her?
3. Talk about a moment in your life when it felt like God might have been inviting you into something significant? How did you respond?
4. How can you create a moment for someone else that could include him or her in God’s bigger story (to come to church, to ministry, to a prayer group)?

With blessings,

Fr. Reichlen

Guidelines for Events At St John's

There is no need for a reservation to attend public Masses. However, please be aware that if our church is filled to capacity, you may have to wait in your car and follow the Mass Live Stream, until the time for Communion in the Parking Lot. Note that all the procedures, as mandated by the Bishop, still apply – (1) stay home if you or members of your household are vulnerable or sick; (2) maintain social distancing; (3) wear a mask properly; and (4) exit immediately after Holy Communion so that the church can be sanitized.

Communion Distribution will be in the Parking Lot on Saturdays at 5:00 pm, and Sundays at 12:15 pm. Please follow the directions of the parking lot attendants. You will be expected to exit your car and walk to a designated space in the parking lot in order to receive Communion. Procedures may be altered because of inclement weather.
