Over 20 people try sell their speaker training. Jane M. Powers was the one person who I really resonated with, her wit and humor, her ability to command a room and her ability to sell in an aligned and powerful way.

I hired Jane to help me craft my opening, TIGHTEN my message and sell in an aligned manner in 90 min or less and over the span of 6 month I went from converting 5K in a presentation to my personal best of $128,000 in 75 minutes!"

This woman is a giver! She is always there to support you, will kick your butt when you need it, and most importantly, will increase your credibility.

My revenue has increased 300% in just 3 months of working with Jane, I've become an international best selling author, have enrolled students into my Business Credit Blueprint and Business Credit Builder program, and have spoken on 10 stages since my journey with Jane began.

Love you!

60 seconds + One INTROmercial = a $10,500 client.

That's just the beginning of what listening to and applying the brilliance of Jane M Powers created for me. I joined the yearlong IMPACT program because I saw in Jane what is missing in so many other programs out there ... substance. Relevant substance that works. With business and speaking expertise that runs vast and deep, Jane's insight has been incredibly valuable to me and my business.

I met Jane in early 2018 after completing my first year in my new business. I had worked very hard and made very little. I knew something had to give but I didn't know what. I heard Jane speak at a women's luncheon in San Diego, I knew I had to hire her if I wanted my income to change. With her coaching and expertise, I was able to make six figures the same year I hired her and this year with her continued support and coaching, I've made multiple six figures. I owe my speaking with confidence and selling with authority to Jane M Powers. Not only is she the best speaking and sales coach in the business, she is also a dear friend whom I love and can count on. Thank you, Jane! XO! Jenny

I'm forever grateful for the day Jane M. Powers popped into my inbox. There's something magnetic and magical about Jane, and I only had to hear her speak once, and I was sold!

Jane has the unique ability of making every single person in a room, from her audience to her clients, feel seen, heard, and incredibly special! She's the most caring, giving, and available business coach I've ever had.

Jane has helped me fine tune my messaging and empowered me to go out and deliver my talk with confidence. After only a few months of working with Jane, I tripled any previous years revenue from speaking engagements and the feedback has been phenomenal.
