

Speaking Engagements

EMILY EDGELEY | PUBLIC SPEAKING COACH

MY STORY

I was crippled with fear when I first started presenting. This not only affected my confidence but my ability to effectively do my job and progress in my career.

After years spent learning and perfecting the art of public speaking, I not only found my confidence, but an ability to engage, inspire and captivate an audience along the way.

I now help others crush their public speaking fears and wow up on stage. This fills me with energy and joy, every single day!

BOOK ME!

My talks go for 30 - 60 mins and are for an audience of any size.

I can also tailor a presentation for your specific requirements and needs.

"ISACA Melbourne Chapter engaged Emily to talk to our members on 'The Power of Storytelling'.

The aim was to provide our members with some useful tips on how to captivate and engage with their audience during presentations.

Emily's talk was highly engaging, she provided practical examples and our members found it very valuable."

MITRA | STORYTELLING SPEAKING
ENGAGEMENT | MARCH 2019

"The art of storytelling is a critical skill for effective stakeholder engagement.

I asked Emily to weave her magic with my students at Swinburne Uni. She received a unanimous vote of thanks for her tips on structuring and delivering stories that influence or change behaviour.

If you want to improve the adoption rate of your reports and recommendations, speak to Emily."
