FATHER'S DESK

“Half Truth” Week 2: I don’t need a Church to have a relationship with God

Dear brothers and sisters,

A half-truth is a statement that has some element of truth in it, but because it is partly wrong, it expresses a whole lie. During the course of this message series, which coincides with some major feast days of the Church, we’re going to refute certain half-truths that are popular in our culture, when it comes to faith and religion. We kicked off this series last week, saying that there is only one way to God, not many – the person of Jesus Christ. Who do you say that Jesus is? All of us are challenged to believe what he says about himself: I am THE Way, THE Truth, and THE Life (John 14:6).

This weekend we celebrate the birth of the Church at Pentecost, and the coming of the Holy Spirit. I am one of seventeen cousins on my father’s side of the family, including myself and my three brothers. The majority of my cousins were raised Catholic, but today out of all of us, only I and one of my brothers is raising his daughter Catholic and practices his faith. The rest are all raising their families without any religion at all. Sadly, the reality today is that almost all churches are shrinking. A recent national poll showed that for the first time ever, less than 50 percent of American adults belonged to a church (or synagogue, mosque, etc.) I’m certain that many of you can tell very similar stories in your families too. People have given up on the Church for many reasons: hypocrisy, scandal, bad experiences, and many other personal reasons.

Now many of the unchurched or “de-churched,” if they were raised Christian or Catholic, still actually profess belief God or in Jesus. However, there is a large group who simply do not believe that they really need a church to connect with God, and again, there are many reasons for this. This is a half truth – we CAN connect with God outside of church through nature, or music, or in our private prayer. Jesus is present wherever we pray in his name!

However, the whole truth is this – the Church is God’s chosen instrument to bring Christ to the world! There are many reasons why this is true. We need the Church in order to learn about Jesus, and to receive the gifts of the Sacraments. Every year around this time, we celebrate the next generation receiving First Holy Communion and Confirmation, along with the joyful moments of baptisms and marriages. Second, we need the church to be a visible sign that God invites everyone into a relationship with him. One characteristic of our welcoming community of St. John’s is that we are multi-cultural. We have church members from dozens of countries almost every continent, except Antarctica and Australia, as far as I know!

Third, we need the Church because God has given each of us different gifts and talents, and we all need the help of others to grow in our faith! This week, read 1 Corinthians 12, where St. Paul speaks about the Body of Christ, and the spiritual gifts given to us. When you read this passage, words and phrases may stick out for you. We all have gifts and talents, given by God, that are meant to be exercised, so that the Body is built up! The Church was, is, and will always be, God’s plan for us to connect with him! May we all exercise our gifts to build up the Body. Questions for Small Groups:

1. What reasons do you have to love the Church? What good things has the Church done for you? What makes it difficult for you to love the Church?
2. Paul lists some spiritual gifts in the reading. What gifts do you believe you might have? How can use the gift to serve in the church?
3. Read 1 Corinthians 12:12-26. How does Paul describe the Church? What does this tell us about our need for the Church?
4. If a friend asked you why you are involved in Church, how would you respond?
5. What does it mean to stay committed to the Church despite its faults and failures?

With blessings,
Fr. Reichlen

Per the instructions of Bishop Bambera, if you are vaccinated, you no longer need to wear a mask inside the Church of St. John for Mass or other activities. Please be aware that anyone who is not fully vaccinated against COVID-19 MUST still wear a face mask. The church will maintain one section where the pews are still roped off to allow for social distancing, and another section that is not socially distanced. Please be respectful of others' safety. If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, please do not enter the church building. Thank you for your patience!

In the next several weeks and months, the church will GRADUALLY bring back things like holy water, candles, singing, and various liturgical ministries.

Communion Distribution will be in the Parking Lot on Saturdays at 5:00pm and Sundays at 11:45 am. Please follow the directions of the parking lot attendants. You will be expected to exit your car and walk to a designated space in the parking lot in order to receive Communion.
