FATHER'S DESK

“Needy” Week 1: Learning to Love Yourself First

Dear brothers and sisters,

In this time of COVID-19 and great stress and burden for so many people, it may be revealed more clearly than ever that we need God, and that we need others. We can't live life on our own! Because of our fallen nature, all of us will be tempted at times to selfishness, and as we kick off our Lenten series, we want to look at a subtle way that our neediness can express itself in our lives, by our lack of self-care. To kick off this series, we recognize a simple truth, that there is a God, and it's not us. We are the created, and God is the Creator. Logically then, as created beings we have basic needs – needs like food, water, and rest. Spiritual maturity requires that we face our needs and meet them in a healthy way. If we deny our physical needs, then we will suffer and become chronically unhealthy; and the same is true for our spiritual needs. As followers of Jesus Christ, we want to grow to learn, more and more, how to meet the needs of our soul, in a healthy way.

In the Gospel of Mark, as Jesus approached his Passion, he has one positive encounter with a scribe of the Jewish Law; we hear: One of the scribes, when he came forward and heard them disputing and saw how well [Jesus] had answered them, asked him, “Which is the first of all the commandments?” Jesus replied, “The first is this: ‘Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.’ (Mark 12:28-31). Jesus masterfully sums up all the commandments of the Jewish Law in a simple and profound way, and the two-fold commandment to Love God, and Love People, given by Jesus, is the mission of the church. Notice that Jesus says, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” It's necessary to love ourselves first, to truly love others! It's like when you get on an airplane, and the flight attendant gives the instructions for putting on a mask in case of an emergency. The flight attendant always instructs passengers to first put on their own masks, before helping the people in the seat next to them, even their own children. If we are honest, many of us don't tend to think of our needs first – we either have a “tough guy” attitude that somehow tending to our own needs is weak, or we have a “nurturing” attitude that our role as a provider or nurturer always means that we have to chronically sacrifice ourselves and our own health, in order to serve and help our loved ones. Both attitudes are based in a false humility that is rooted in pride. The truth is that if we learn how to meet our own needs well, we will be better able to love God and to love others.

The bottom line of our Lenten series is this: there is a God, and it's not us. We are the created – and therefore we have needs. May we learn to take the responsibility to take care of ourselves – and that this is, in fact, a spiritually mature thing to do. Questions for Small Groups:

1. On a scale of 1-5, how good are you at self-care? Why do you answer as you do?
2. Do you agree or disagree that your ability to love others will fall to your ability to love and care for yourself? Does it feel selfish to meet your needs first?
3. How could you be better taking care of yourself? What legitimate need do you tend to neglect?
4. Is there a legitimate need you are tempted to meet in an illegitimate or immoral way?
5. If you observed someone you loved, taking care of themselves in the way you care for yourself, would you be concerned? Why or why not?

With blessings,
Fr. Reichlen

Guidelines for Events At St John's

There is no need for a reservation to attend public Masses. However, please be aware that if our church is filled to capacity, you may have to wait in your car and follow the Mass Live Stream, until the time for Communion in the Parking Lot. Note that all the procedures, as mandated by the Bishop, still apply – (1) stay home if you or members of your household are vulnerable or sick; (2) maintain social distancing; (3) wear a mask properly; and (4) exit immediately after Holy Communion so that the church can be sanitized.

Communion Distribution will be in the Parking Lot on Saturdays at 5:00 pm, and Sundays at 12:15 pm. Please follow the directions of the parking lot attendants. You will be expected to exit your car and walk to a designated space in the parking lot in order to receive Communion. Procedures may be altered because of inclement weather.
